All Saints Sunday

Sunday, November 2: 21st Sunday after Pentecost, Proper 26

Scripture: Daniel 7:1-3 and 15-18, Psalm 149, Ephesians 1:11-23, Luke 6:20-31

On Sunday, November 2, in order to celebrate the lives of our members and friends who have died in the past year, we will use the lectionary readings for All Saint's Day which is November 1, the day after All Hallows Eve. Our lessons this Sunday begin with an apocalyptic reading from the prophet Daniel. In this lesson, Daniel sees a vision where, not the kings of the earth, but the saints of the Most High (God) shall receive and possess the kingdom forever. In the Psalm, saying, "Praise the Lord!" and "Sing to the Lord a new song," the psalmist offers a song about the Lord's love of Israel. The theme of praise and hope continues in Ephesians where we have a prayer of hope. It tells the church in Ephesus, and us, "I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe. In the gospel of Luke's parallel to Matthew's Sermon on the Mount, Luke offers another version of the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Plain.

Veteran's Sunday and Congregational Meeting

As we did last year, we will honor the Veterans of our church family by offering special prayers during worship and sharing a PowerPoint with their photos in the narthex before and after the worship. We will include all the photos which were shared last year and invite others who might like to add their relatives and loved ones to the presentation. Please speak with Pastor Dale about adding them to the presentation.

Sunday, November 9: 22nd Sunday after Pentecost, Proper 27, Veteran's Sunday

Scripture: Job 19:23-27a, Psalm 17:1-9, 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5 and 13-17, Luke 20:27-38

As we return to the regular schedule of Sundays after Pentecost, and approach the end of the church liturgical year, the themes of resurrection, judgement, end times, and the last days of Christ appear. This is evident this week in the gospel lesson where in response to the Sadducee's question about childlessness and levirate marriage,

Jesus answers questions about resurrection and in Second Thessalonians we have a word of patience and caution regarding the coming of the Day of the Lord. The passage from Job is a portion of Job's response to his friend's advice, where Job says, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the Psalm, David pleads his integrity and prays to be preserved.

Stewardship Sunday

On this Sunday we will discuss financial matters of the congregation, discuss faithful approaches to stewardship, and offer an opportunity for our church members and friends to make a pledge, or faith promise to financially support Immanuel Church.

Sunday, November 16: 23rd Sunday after Pentecost, Proper 28

Scripture: Malachi 4:1-2a, Psalm 98, 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13, Luke 21:5-19

In the very last chapter of the Old Testament, the prophet Malachi, speaking for God, promises that all the evildoers will be burned up like stubble and the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. A call to praise the righteous Lord is offered in the psalm, saying, "Make a joyful noise all the earth," and "O sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things!" Paul offers the Thessalonians a blunt warning against idleness and urges them to work hard. And finally, in the gospel of Luke, between Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem and the events of Maundy Thursday, the destruction of the Temple is foretold.

Thanksgiving Sunday

Sunday, November 23: Last Sunday after Pentecost, Proper 29, Reign of Christ.

Scripture: Deuteronomy 26:1-11, Psalm 100, Philippians 4:4-9, John 6:25-35

In The passage from Deuteronomy, God gives, as an inheritance, to the Jewish people a land to possess and in which to settle. It also includes instructions to give thanks with the first fruits of the land and their tithes. Psalm 100, a psalm of thanksgiving, begins with the familiar words, "Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth. Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing." In Paul's letter to the church in Philippi, Paul encourages their members to rejoice in the Lord always, not to worry about anything, and give thanks to God in everything through prayer and supplication. And finally in the gospel of John, following the feeding of the 5000, and Jesus' walking on water, his disciples search for him. When they find him, he challenges them, reminds them of their ancestors who ate manna in the desert, and then proclaims, "I am the bread of life."

First Sunday of Advent

On this Sunday, the plans include a coffee hour after worship and the "Hanging of the Greens" or the completion of the decorating of the sanctuary for Christmas.

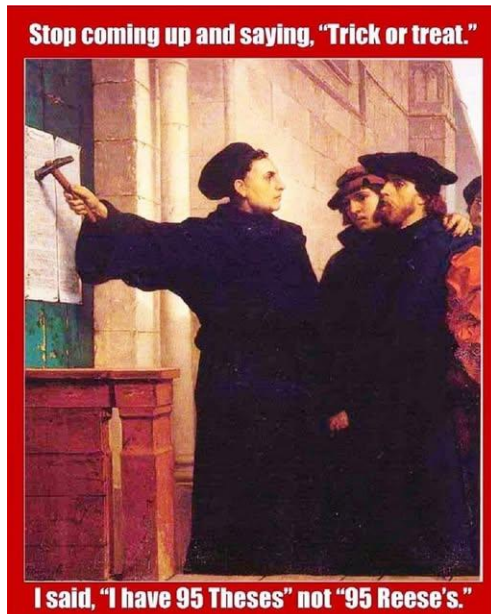

Sunday, November 30: First Sunday of Advent

Scripture: Isaiah 2:1-5, Psalm 122, Romans 13:11-14, Matthew 24:36-44

As the season of Advent begins, our first reading comes from the prophet Isaiah. In the second superscription or introduction of Isaiah, which includes the familiar words, "they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks," the prophet describes the glorified or new Jerusalem. The psalm is a song of praise and prayer for Jerusalem. In Paul's letter to the Romans, the apostle offers an urgent appeal to put away works of darkness and put on the armor of light. In the gospel lesson from Matthew, mentioning Noah, Jesus encourages us to stay awake and be watchful because the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.

Pastor's Message

For those unaware, or perhaps not appreciating the historical context of the meme to the left, October 31, in addition to being Halloween, is Reformation Day.

According to Philip Melancthon, 31 October 1517 was the day Martin Luther nailed his Ninety-five Theses on the door of the All Saints' Church in Wittenberg. The Theses were a list of theological and practical concerns within the Roman Catholic church Martin Luther, and likely others, felt needed to be "discussed" publicly.

The holiday is significant for the Lutheran and Reformed (like us at Immanuel) Churches, although other Protestant communities also tend to commemorate the day. The Roman Catholic Church recognized it only recently, and often sends its official representatives in ecumenical spirit to various commemoration events held by Protestants.

The Reformation, also known as the Protestant Reformation or the European Reformation, was a time of major theological movement in Western Christianity in 16th-century Europe that posed a religious and political challenge to the papacy and the authority of the Catholic Church hierarchy. Towards the end of the Renaissance, the Reformation marked the beginning of Protestantism. It is considered one of the events that signified the end of the Middle Ages and the beginning of the early modern period in Europe.

Core tenets of the Reformation (The five solas)

- Sola Scriptura (Scripture Alone):

The Bible is the highest and final authority for faith and life, not church tradition, or the Pope.

- Sola Gratia (Grace Alone):

Salvation is a gift from God's unmerited favor, not something earned by human effort.

- Sola Fide (Faith Alone):

People are declared righteous (justified) through faith in Jesus Christ alone, not by good works

- Solus Christus (Christ Alone):

Jesus Christ is the only mediator between God and humanity, and salvation is only possible through him.

- Soli Deo Gloria (For the Glory of God Alone):

The ultimate purpose of life is to glorify God in all things.

Other Key Points

- Authority:

The Reformation challenged the authority of the Pope and the Catholic Church hierarchy, shifting spiritual authority to the Bible.

- Corruption:

It was sparked by, and reacted against, perceived corruption within the Catholic Church, such as the sale of indulgences. Indulgences, in the Catholic Church, are the remission of the temporal punishment for sins whose guilt has already been forgiven. They are gained through specific actions and conditions and are either partial or plenary (total). Historically, the practice became controversial, particularly due to abuses like the selling of indulgences for money, which was a key point of contention for Martin Luther and a catalyst for the Protestant Reformation.

- Personal Relationship:

Reformers promoted the idea that individuals should have a direct, personal relationship with God, taking personal responsibility for their faith. This is most easily seen in our Time of Confession. Protestants, like us, are not required to confess our sinful behaviors to a priest but confess directly to God.

- Accessibility:

The Reformation led to the Bible being translated into vernacular languages (the language we use and understand every day), making it accessible to the common people and helping to spread literacy. This is why I often prefer not to use the Thee's and Thou's and similar language.

Those are the main points of the Reformation, known as the "five solas." As a quick review, they center on the belief that salvation comes from grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, as revealed in Scripture alone, all for the glory of God alone. The movement rejected the authority of the Pope and many Catholic practices, asserting the Bible as the sole authority for faith and conduct. It was also a response to perceived corruption within the Catholic Church and advocated for a more direct, personal relationship with God.

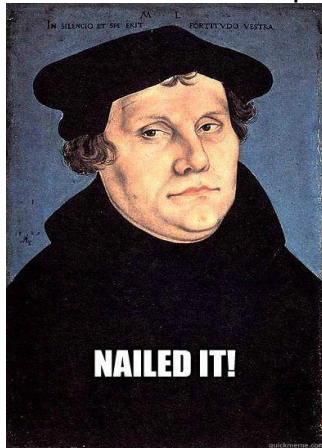

However:

We, and The Church of Jesus Christ, are who we are because of the actions of Martin Luther and many others who came before and after him. Some church traditions changed quickly, some radically, some more slowly, and without straying very far from the Roman Catholic church. However, it can be argued, and we seldom highlight these consequences, that obscure theological debates, patriarchal culture, catechetical indoctrination, social injustice, anti-Semitism, and state-run churches were a prominent side of the Reformation.

Furthermore, It is uncertain if Martin Luther personally nailed the 95 Theses to the church door, and many historians consider the famous image of him nailing them to be a myth or an embellishment. What is certain is that he posted them, likely on October 31, 1517, but this was more likely through an act of posting them to be publicly debated as was the academic custom at the time, which often happened by simply affixing them to the door with glue or tacks, not necessarily with a hammer and nails.

That's Enough for Now:

That was a primer, a Reader's Digest or Cliff Notes rendering, of the important parts of the Reformation. Hope I --

Peace, Pastor Dale

Faith Promise Sunday Sunday, November 16, 2025

As noted in the Worship Schedule earlier in the Newsletter, Sunday, November 16 will be our Faith Promise Sunday. Some churches call this Pledge Sunday, but whatever we call it, it is a time when we are called to consider how we will support our congregation with our gifts of time, talents, and particularly financial resources in the coming year.

Stewardship is the job of supervising or taking care of something, such as an organization or property. Biblical stewardship is the belief that God is the ultimate owner of everything, and humans are God's managers, responsible for wisely using the resources He has entrusted to them. This includes not just money, but also one's time, talents, and spiritual gifts, which are to be used for His purposes and to serve others. It is a whole-life responsibility that is an act of worship, service, and giving.

The Deacons of our congregation, who were charged with nurturing our faithful stewardship, many years ago created this Faith Promise Sunday. As it has said in previous announcements of this Sunday:

The process would provide an opportunity for members and friends to consider what percentage of their income they feel God is calling them to give next year. Each household would be invited make a "faith promise" between them and God, concerning the estimated amount. Whether large or small, this offering reflects our response to God's love and blessing in our lives.

The “faith promise” you make is not “in addition” to what you already give to the church. The process is intended for us to seriously and faithfully consider how we will support Immanuel United Church of Christ and the gospel we proclaim. The “promise” is not a legal and unchangeable document. Our church leaders will not connect your pledge with your name. Neither is it “binding.” If you lose your income, or have serious financial challenges, please feel free to make adjustments in your church giving. On the other side, if you win the lottery or something similar, again, please feel free to “make adjustments” in your church giving!

And so, once again, on Faith Promise Sunday there will be an opportunity for members and friends of the congregation to dedicate their private “faith promise” pledges during our worship time. The Faith Promise Cards can be seen below and will be available on Sunday, November 16.

You will be invited to complete the sections on each card, separate them, and deposit the first two in separate containers. The third card will be for your records. Thank you for your faithful support.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

A congregational meeting will be held on Sunday, November 9 following worship. We will be electing the President of the Congregation for 2026 and voting to accept the proposed budget for 2026. Everyone is welcome to attend, however, only members may vote.

DAY LIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS NOV. 2

Remember to set your clocks back 1 hour before retiring on Saturday November 1.

CHURCH COUNCIL

It's time to look for new members for the church council as Chuck Hanson, Carolyn Price and Roger Segar will be retiring from the council having completed their term of service. It is a 3-year term, meeting once every other month. If you would like to serve this church as a member of the Church Council, please contact a member of the council or Pastor Dale. This is your opportunity to see first-hand the inner workings of your church.

OFFERING

To those who continue to meet their pledges throughout the year and offer monetary help when needed, thank you! We have to pay mortgage, utilities, payroll, insurances, Federal & State withholding taxes just to name a few of the monthly obligations. Please give what you can when you can so that we are not continuing to run in the RED. Send donations to Claudia McDonald, 4434 Maple Dam Rd., Cambridge, MD 21613 or to the church at 5401 Whitehall Rd., Cambridge, MD. You may also place your donation in our locked mail box located on Whitehall Rd.

CALLING ALL BAKERS!

The Bazaar will be held later this month and we need your help! This year the Bazaar will be held on November 15th, and this is usually a big day for our bake table. The Bake Table is usually the very first stop when the shoppers enter Fellowship Hall. They are usually looking for baked goods for their upcoming dinners and we usually have a big selection of cakes, pies, breads, cookies and candy. Our shoppers are especially looking for pies—apple, cherry, sweet potato and pumpkin.

This would also be a great time to get the children or grandchildren involved with holiday baking. They love cookies and this would be a good time to get their help in preparing their favorite cookies for the Bazaar. They would be able to eat a few and help prepare the balance for a donation to the bake table.

The baked items will require the “Ingredients Label” that we have printed and needs to be applied to each baked goods item or package. We have been using this label for some time now and it has worked well.

If possible, please bring your item(s) to Fellowship Hall/Kitchen on Friday, November 14TH so they are available when the sale starts at 9am—we usually have shoppers waiting for the doors to open on Saturday morning.

Holiday Bazaar

The Holiday Bazaar is the “last fund raiser” of the year and it will be held on November 15^h—the second Saturday in November. In the past several years, this has been one of our largest fund raisers and many people in the community come to enjoy all our food, bake table, and items we have for sale.

We would like to request that you start planning for the Bazaar—checking to see if you have items for the “White Elephant” table, including dishes/pot and pans, holiday decorations, pictures, costume jewelry, handbags, curtains, linens, pictures, pillows, toys, books—just about anything you can think of to donate, but NO clothing. Due to the amount of work required during this busy week, we are making some changes when items may be brought to Church this year. We are requesting that items be brought to Church starting on October 16 and no additional items after November 5. This will give us time to arrange and price the various items. We are also requesting that all glassware/pot and pans be washed and clean when they are delivered.

In addition, we will have our “Silent Auction or Bid-It/Buy-It” sale. Please consider furnishing an item or basket for this table. People are always looking for something “special” for a Christmas gift. We have not always had something for children—this would be a good opportunity to donate an item for that special child. If you don’t want or have time to shop, you may make a donation and we will do the shopping for you—just make your donation by November 4th to give us time to shop!

We will also again offer the “Chicken Salad Platter Carryout” at the Bazaar and as “pre-orders” for our congregation. This has been well received in previous years and we want to continue to provide them as part of the Bazaar. There will be a sign-up sheet in the Narthex, with either Saturday, November 15th or Sunday, November 16th pickup. The carryout contains: a scoop of Chicken Salad on lettuce, 2 deviled egg halves, grape tomatoes, grapes, cubes of cheese, crackers and plastic ware/napkin—all for $9.00.

For the first time, we will have our homemade spaghetti sauce for sale. This can be pre-ordered at the same time as you order soup and/or chicken salad..

News from the Missions Committee

Thank you also for your amazing support of the school donation drive. We were able to support all 11 Dorchester County Public Schools.

Through your generous support of our food pantry supplies, we continue to be able to help people 1 or 2 times each month when times are tough. Non-perishable items such as canned meats, fruit, vegetables, potatoes, coffee, breakfast items (including syrup), condiments, toiletries (TP, paper towels, toothpaste, shampoo/conditioner, feminine hygiene products, diapers, etc.) are always welcome at any time of year.

We will be collecting items to give to the less fortunate children of Dorchester at Christmas again this year through the Dorchester Santa Toy Drive, who then gives the items to The Salvation Army in Cambridge to be distributed. We will have a Pack-N-Play and Dorchester Santa boxes in the Narthex for collection of new, unwrapped toys, books, clothes, games, and any other items suitable for children 12 and under (boys and girls). Lets help them have a good Christmas.

Save the Dates:

We will be having our Annual Mission Meal on Sunday, February 1st after our Sunday Worship Service in the Fellowship Hall. Please plan on being hungry.

Monday, March 2, 2026 – One Mission Cambridge Community Dinner: We will be providing a meal for this Dinner and will need volunteers to help with preparation, delivery, serving, and mingling with the crowd. (Bakers too for desserts).

Robin, Kathy, Michal, Charlotte, Kim, David

News from Hunt Committee

The Waterfowl Hunt will be held on Saturday, January 17, 2026.

We will need to have volunteers to help with set-up, day-of for registration (early morning), kitchen help for breakfast, then for lunch, and for clean-up.

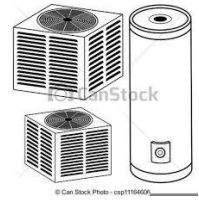

Help is also needed to sell "Sportsman Raffle" tickets.

Anyone who would like to help with this committee is welcome to join. Meetings will be announced, all are welcome.

Jock, Robin, Bill M, Phillip

PRE-PAID FUEL 2025-2026

This is just a reminder that cold weather is just around the corner and the need to keep our church building warm this winter is always a challenge. Getting help with this expense via our pre-paid fuel account is a big help in meeting our financial obligations. Our goal this year is $10,000. At the end of September we have $3,881.40 in this account.

THANKSGIVING/HARVEST HOME SUNDAY

Harvest Home Sunday has been a long tradition at Immanuel. In recent years, Harvest Home has become Thanksgiving Sunday and is celebrated the Sunday before the holiday. We will celebrate on Sunday, November 23rd of this year.

We would like to wish everyone a happy Thanksgiving. Please note that the office will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 27, Thanksgiving Day and on Friday, Nov. 28. The office will reopen on Monday, December 1st with our normal office hours of 9am to 1pm. Enjoy the Holiday!

HANGING THE GREENS

Sunday (Nov. 30th) will be Hanging of the Greens. The Christmas tree will be set up but not decorated and as we did last year, we will be asking members of the congregation to hang at least one ornament on the tree.

NUT AND GOODIE SALE

After offering a variety of nuts and candies for many years to benefit the local Cold Weather Shelter, Hoffman Homes for Youth and Kitty City Rescue, I find the company I have dealt with went out of business this year.

The company furnishing the nuts that are to be received around the second to third week in November are all "new crop" nuts. Items offered are 16 oz. Pecan Halves and Pieces; 16 oz. Extra Large Pecan Pieces; 12 oz. Chocolate Covered Pecans; 10 oz. Cinnamon Glazed Pecans; 8 oz. Glazed Pecans; 8 oz. Pecan Caramel Clusters; 12 oz. Roasted & Salted Gumbo Cashews.

A price sheet will be available in a few weeks and posted on the hall bulletin board outside the office. If you wish to place an order, please contact Beverly Shelly at 443-521-5194 or see her at church.

Our community thanks you for your support!
